A CALL FOR ART

Paint in the participating lavender fields of Oregon and Washington June 8 through July 8th, 2026. Each artist can choose when and where to paint during each participating farms' "open-for-artists" hours. Many farms are near world class wineries, are scattered through-out the state and some even have mountains as a backdrop to the lovely purple fields. This is a great venue for first-time "en plein air" painters, so don't be shy, join us for a great painting adventure.

The Lavender Festival draws huge crowds - in 2025, about 8,000 people attended the festival.

We also have a great history of art sales during the festival- on average, 49% of participating painters sell at least one painting.
